

TASTING NOTES

A deep dark red color. Rich dark fruit predominantly blackberry and dark cherry surrounded by menthol and tobacco and nicely rounded off by cloves, cinnamon and cocoa powder and a hint of cola with a pleasant smoky finish. Medium full on the palate with good structure and hints of brambly fruits and a vanilla smoke finish. The acid is lively and the finish is long with just a hint of a drying grip on the end.

Red Mountain is quickly becoming recognized as one of the premier grape growing regions in the Northwest. Ambassador Vineyard, located on Red Mountain, is building a reputation for producing phenomenal fruit. As one of the few 100% estate grown wineries in the state we have the unique ability to control the winemaking process from the vineyard to the bottle, resulting in wines that are characteristic of this unique terroir.
