

TASTING NOTES

Rich dark berry enveloped by smoke and dried herbs with a finish of black pepper, creamy raspberry and just a hint of minerality in the background. Medium body and spicy on the palate with creamy fruit and cinnamon spice, finishing with a hint of smoke. Nice structure without being to grippy, very pleasant to drink now but should age very nicely for 5-10 years.

Red Mountain is quickly becoming recognized as one of the premier grape growing regions in the Northwest. Ambassador Vineyard, located on Red Mountain, is building a reputation for producing phenomenal fruit. As one of the few 100% estate grown wineries in the state we have the unique ability to control the winemaking process from the vineyard to the bottle, resulting in wines that are characteristic of this unique terroir.
